Exodus 5:2 ESV

But Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and moreover, I will not let Israel go."

The late great Theologian Charles Spurgeon said this: "In seasons of severe trial, the Christian has nothing on earth that he can trust to, and is therefore compelled to cast himself on God alone. When no human deliverance can avail, he must simply and entirely trust himself to the providence and care of God. Happy storm that wrecks a man on such a rock as this! O blessed hurricane that drives the soul to God--and God alone!"

As we look at this quote, and as we reflect on what the Lord is doing as we think about the things in our lives we begin to see that there will always be a Pharaoh that will arise who will try to stop what the Lord is doing, and will have a spirit of arrogance to where Pharaoh never believes that he is untouchable!

One must always be careful and watch the attitude and the spirit of trying to be a Pharaoh, and it is a good reminder that even though we see that there is this negative person and spirit, the Lord will always take care of His children, and the Lord always shows us that we don't have to allow Pharaoh to win in our lives.

Somebody will always feel like they own you if you let them, but that is when you have to tell anybody that the person that you belong to is the Lord and because you belong to the Lord who can stop you! Don't ever allow a loud voice or a stubborn spirit, make you stop or make you forget about the power of the Lord, because God can always give you victory over the ones trying to stop you!

You are never stopped when you don't bow down to Pharaoh! Bow to the Lord, and make sure to continue to serve and fear the Lord, and watch how the Lord will take care of you!
