Psalm 96:1-2 ESV

Oh sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth! [2] Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.

The Late Great Theologian & Preacher Dr. Martin Luther King Jr once said this: "I may not be the man I want to be; I may not be the man I ought to be; I may not be the man I could be; I may not be the man I truly can be; but praise God, I'm not the man I once was."

Praise should be something that always has a meaning and purpose. When we are praising the Lord, we are doing it with a purpose and a reason, we should never not praise the Lord but we should always praise the Lord, and be thankful for whom the Lord has made and allowed us to be. We all go through various things, but it is always important and something we should never forget that we are where we are because of God's grace.

The grace of the Lord is why we are here, and the grace of the Lord is why we are alive and since we are the beneficiaries of His grace, then every day is another opportunity to sing and make a musical to the Lord because we know that the Lord is why we are here. You and I are alive and meant to praise the Lord the Lord, and we should never give God false praise but we should always give the Lord real and meaningful praise because He is worthy of it.

Is the Lord worthy to you? Where God ranks in your life shows in your praise, and if the Lord doesn't rank that high in your life your praise to Him won't be that meaningful. We need to always have meaningful worship to the Lord, and when we have meaningful worship to the Lord, and when we always acknowledge Him that will always make us complete, whole, and happy because of who we give our attention to!
