Matthew 6:9-10 ESV

[Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. \[10\] Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.](#)

The great poet and philosopher and some have called “The Prophet” Khalil Gibran said this about prayer: “Prayer is the song of the heart. It reaches the ear of God even if it is mingled with the cry and tumult of a thousand men.” I believe that to be true, that when we are praying, and when we are talking to the Lord it is something that we always need, we always need to participate, and we always need to continue to express because prayer is what keeps us in times of trouble.

We live in troubling and tough times that we need to pray, because can’t we see just how much is going on in our world and we see that as we live in this life there is always some kind of trouble, some kind of tragedy, and some kind of trauma but that is when we have to make sure that we pray. We need to pray fervently, and prayer does not have a time limit but we should never limit our time with the Lord!

As long as you are walking with the Lord you need the Lord, and because we need the Lord let us never live any life that we feel that our lives are secure enough that we don’t need more of the Lord. We should always strive and crave to continue to seek God, and seek God every day because every day has enough troubles but as long as we have the Lord we will make it through the storms, through the burdens, and through the tears.

Let us pray always for the Lord to have His way, and because the Lord is having His way we can always trust in His way, and we can always believe in Him that we know that the Lord will always do the right things for us. God has not forgotten about you, and God will always take care of us. We need to take care of our souls and spirits as well, by praying to the Lord and seeking the Lord and watching how the Lord will surely bless us!
