Psalm 106:1 ESV

Praise the LORD! Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!

The Late Pastor & Theologian Charles Spurgeon said this: “Worship is the highest elevation of the spirit, and yet the lowliest prostration of the soul.”

Praising the Lord is not something that we should do when we feel like it, but praising the Lord should be a daily occurrence and a daily action that we take because when we know that the Lord is real, and when we know that the Lord is our God worship never loses power and doesn't lose its significance!

We should always praise the Lord, and when we praise the Lord we are in a position of gratitude and humility when we praise the Lord we acknowledge that the Lord kept us, the Lord has allowed us to survive, the Lord has allowed us to overcome, the Lord has allowed us to make it through so many things. Let us be grateful for how the Lord showed up, and because the Lord showed up for us we should have that spirit of praise!

Praising the Lord is like watering a plant, that when you water a plant you make sure that you are taking care of the plant and when you take care of the plant that is when you show concern for it because you want that plant to live. We need to make sure that we treat our worship and relationship with the Lord the same way, it should be something that we take care of all of the time because of His goodness!

As long as we have the Lord, we should always have worship and we should always make sure that we keep on praising the Lord because the Lord is always good! We have a great God, and since we have a great God why should we never stop praising Him for all His goodness!
